Date	Pages ___ to ___	Share one connection, one question and one inference (thought or opinion) about what you read each day
Example: 14/4/20	Pg 1 - 25	When Malala wishes for a magic pencil, it reminded me of when I wanted to be able to travel through time so that I could experience different time periods and see history in the making. I was wondering if many of the TV shows in Pakistan are produced there or if they watch a lot of "western" television shows. I liked the way Malala came to realize that a regular pencil can be magic too since there is power in our words.
