

Writing: Journal Prompts

WEEK 1

April 6 - 10

→ Use the following journal titles and writing prompts to guide your writing activities for the week. The writing prompts are meant to be a starting point... feel free to add any ideas of your own.

→ You may write your journals by hand or type them out

→ You are expected to write for 20 minutes.

	Journal Title	Writing prompts & ideas to expand on
Day 1	<input type="checkbox"/> When I First Heard About the Virus	<input type="checkbox"/> Do you remember when you first heard about the Coronavirus? Was it from a teacher at school, a friend, a family member, on social media or on the news? Write down whatever you can remember about where you were and what was said. How did you feel about it at the time? Did you later change your mind about it? Why?
Day 2	<input type="checkbox"/> The Last Day Before My School Closed	<input type="checkbox"/> What happened on the last day before your school closed? Did you know ahead of time that it was going to be the last day, or did you find out later? Did you have a chance to say goodbye to your teachers and friends? Describe what the day was like. Do you have any regrets?
Day 3	<input type="checkbox"/> Staying at Home From School: Advantages and Disadvantages	<input type="checkbox"/> Now that you are staying home from school, how are things different? Are all of your family members staying home all day? Is it hard for your family to get groceries? Which things are easier for you, and which things are harder?
